As a fresher in data analysis, my passion lies in exploring the endless possibilities that data offers. I am eager to dive into complex datasets, uncovering patterns and insights that can drive meaningful decisions. My enthusiasm for learning and mastering new analytical tools fuels my growth in this field. I am committed to transforming data into valuable knowledge and making a tangible impact through my work.

EXPERIENCE AND PROJECTS

EXPERIENCE THROUGH MY PROJECTS

- Through Excel projects I have gained knowledge of Data Manipulation, Analysis, Data Visualization/Charts and Reporting.
- Through my SQL projects, I have developed the ability to write sophisticated queries to efficiently retrieve, filter, and manipulate data from relational databases. This includes using JOINs, subqueries, and window functions to handle complex data requirements and extract valuable insights.
- I have gained significant experience in designing well-structured and normalized database schemas, ensuring data integrity and efficient storage.

PROJECTS

- MS Excel Project
- MySQL Project
